Hospitality & game reports are working, Lanness Robinson is making improvements as schools conform.

Elections are next Monday, October 27.

Absentee ballots are now open. Absentee ballots will be closed at midnight Sunday 10/26.

The WCOA needs someone to coordinate the Lawson numbers and fingerprinting effort.

WCOA may be able to pay this person to perform this service.

If your fingerprinting card is dated before September 2005 (and most are) they are not renewable.

Even though they were renewable for the past 5 years. That's why we paid the $25.

They must be redone. The membership is very displeased with this bureaucratic error.

Efforts will be directed at negotiating this decision by the county.

Play-offs were discussed and the selection format was explained.

The committee (Bruce Cox, Tom Johnson and Dave Stone and Ben Heugel) explained the process.

Based upon the report, in great detail, supplied by Harold Greenfield the eligible officials were listed.

Officials had to pass FHSAA requirements before passing WCOA requirements, both were necessary.

The officials that passed all the requirements were play-off qualified.

They were then placed on crews trying to balance crew integrity and strength of crews.

The list was distributed to the attendees for review and discussion.

Questions were answered and certain officials needed reminding why they were not selected.

Attached is the WCOA Play-Off Recommendations as selected by the committee.

A discussion followed about the rankings, play-off criteria, positions, evaluations and attendance.

Motion was made to accept the play-off roster. It was seconded, and passed with a majority vote.

Mike Ulizio (WCOA Treasurer):

Mike has assumed the position from Thom Powers.

There is a new voucher system on-line in place on the web site.

All officials must handle their own vouchers for game pay.

This includes, varsity & JV crews and chains, and JV clocks and/or evaluations.

Hank Weil (Youth Football Booking Commissioner):

This is the last weekend of youth regular season football.

Starting November 1, uniform is knickers & socks at all games.

Play-offs will all be 5 man mechanics. No clocks at Skyway.

We are going to spread the games out to everyone, when possible.

Steve Clouse Jr. (WCOA Board Member):
