

WHAT SHOULD YOU PACK IN YOUR GAME BAG?

1. Clothing

- A. Two pair of pants
 - 1. In case the first pair rips
 - 2. In case blood gets on the first pair
- B. Black shorts
 - 1. If your game pants rip, it should not be obvious to all

- C. Black socks
- D. Gym socks
- E. Two striped shirts
- F. Two T-shirts
 - 1. Don't wear a t-shirt that has writing on it, as it can be seen through your striped shirt

- G. Shoes
- H. Black belt, if your pants have belt loops
- I. Black jacket
- J. In reserve, you should always carry an extra pair of black and gym

socks, black shorts, and a t-shirt

2. Equipment

- A. Store your game equipment in a secure container (i.e., Tupperware)
 - 1. Minimum of two whistles of each variety (Fox 40 and Acme)
 - a. Should your partner not have a Fox 40, use the Acme)
 - 2. Minimum of two lanyards
 - a. Keep the extra lanyard in your pocket with the extra
 - whistle
 - 3. Rubber bands
 - a. If you use this for possession arrow
 - 4. Inflation pin
 - a. In case the game ball has too much air
- B. Pregame card and court diagram
- C. Rule and case books
- D. Date book
- E. Bring contract for that game in case there is a problem

3. Miscellaneous

- A. Shoe bag and shoe trees
- B. Shoe laces
- C. Shoe polish, brush, and cloth
 - 1. Shape Up Military Style works very well
- D. Towel
- E. Soap and shampoo
- F. Mouthwash and/or toothbrush and paste
- G. Comb/brush
- H. Hair spray

I. Shower slippers

1. When was the last time anyone cleaned the shower

stall

J. Deodorant

K. Razor blades/Electric razor

L. Plastic bag for wet clothing