

1. Members failing to show up for games or continuous lateness.

- a. Members who fail to arrive at a game on time without notifying one of the booking commissioners of the reason for their tardiness shall be required to explain their situation before the basketball sports committee within a two week period. Members, who continually are tardy for games, 10 minutes for JV officials, and 20 minutes for varsity officials, shall present themselves before the basketball sports committee to discuss their situation or face a reduction in games or a possible suspension within a two week period. Members who “no-show” for games will have their schedule immediately suspended until they can meet with the sports committee and explain themselves to the committee’s satisfaction.
